Concert at Villa of Mrs. J. L. Breese in Southampton

Miss Eva Gauthier Sings in Costume at Event for Soldiers' Rest.

Special to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD. SOUTHAMPTON, L. I., Aug. 31 .- The Italian renaissance music room of the Orchard, the villa of Mr. and Mrs. James Lawrence Breese, was filled this afterpoon for a concert in aid of the soldiers' rest which is in the Blue Ridge Mountain district of Culpeper county, Virginia. The programme was out of the ordinary, with Miss Eva Gauthier in modernist and Japanese songs, the latter being given in costume, and Mr. Francis Rogers in English songs of the seventsenth and eighteenth centuries. Waiter Golde was at the plane.

The surroundings of the room, with its treasures of art dating from the fifteenth century, seemed quite fitting for such an enterfainment. In the course of the afternoon Mrs. Rogers, who presided, raised fully $3,000 in subscriptions for the work of the institution. After the Harriman also joined friends for dinner concert tea was served, Mrs. Breese, Mrs. Robert Waller and Miss Gladys Olcott pouring.

Among those in the audience were L Patterson, Mrs. Henry Pearce, Mrs. Walter Cutting, Miss Juliana Cutting, Mrs. Howard Nott Potter, Miss Ethel Petter, Mrs. Harold Barclay, Mrs. Brown, Dr. and Mrs. Peter B. Transportation Man Victim of Automobile Accident.

Word was received at the local offices of the Eric Railroad yesterday of the death in an automobile accident in Daytona, Fla., Sunday, of Charles R. Stewart, president of the Phenix Transit Company, and formerly marine superintendent of the Eric Railroad. The advices stated Mr. Stewart was driving his automobile along the beach at Day tona when another car, travelling at a high rate of speed, ran into him. Mr. Stewart's machine turned turtle. Those in the automobile with him escaped in-jury. Mr. Stewart was 58 years old, and had been connected with the Erie Railroad for nearly forty years. He leaves a wife and a son.
